Mr. Dillard S. Gardner
Librarian
North Carolina Supreme Court Library
Raleigh, North Carolina

Dear Dillard:

The Carolinas Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries will hold its Spring Meeting on Friday, March 31 at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. We cordially invite you and Mrs. Broughton to attend. Our schedule for the day will be as follows:

1. Meet at the Carolina Inn Cafeteria for lunch at 1:00 P.M.
2. At 2:00 P.M. adjourn to the home of Miss Lucile Elliott who will be our hostess for the meeting at 700 Gimghoul Road.

Our program will be rather informal and will consist of:
1. Discussion and clearance of old business before the Chapter.
2. Discussion of plans for future programs this year.
3. Discussion of handling of duplicate and obsolete materials in our respective law libraries.

Please think over the two latter items and bring some thought on it to the meeting.

Being a rather junior member in law library experience and eager for discussion of particular library problems, I submit for your consideration the idea of instituting a little problem session, time permitting, at the end of each meeting. Any new or interesting problems arising between meetings would be submitted to the group for discussing having, I believe, beneficial results for us all.

If you know, and I am sure you do, what Chapel Hill is like in Spring, I am sure you won't miss this meeting. I am looking forward to seeing you and Mrs. Broughton.

Sincerely yours,

Sarah Leverette
President
