Dear Minnette:

I am enclosing all dues received by me up to this point for 1956-1957. Some confusion occurred in my mind concerning the payment of these dues so that both the August 1956 dues form and the one sent out recently designated dues as 1956-57. It is my opinion and Corinne's that it would be less confusing to designate dues by the Calendar year so that the current ones collected in January 1957 would be for the year 1957. I am also enclosing bank statements sent to me from the Bank of Chapel Hill. I hope that you have received the signature card by this time. I have not yet sent the files since I am still working on them. My failure to attend the last two meetings as well as my absence from the office for most of the summer necessitates some bringing up to date of this material.

If there is anything further I can do please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

Sarah
