Dear Mary:

Thank you for your letter of April 14 concerning the Spring meeting of the Carolinas Chapter at Duke University. I am very sorry that I will be unable to attend since I am teaching a Freshman Legal Bibliography class and cannot rearrange my hours so that I can be off Friday.

I am most interested in plans for the Fall meeting and would certainly like to be there for the making of these plans. I know you are very busy, but if you do get an opportunity to drop me a line any time later as to what happened at the meeting at Duke I will appreciate it very much.

I also have your letter concerning the Fall meeting and will advise later as to whether or not there will be more than one attending from the University of South Carolina Law Library.

Even though I do not make the meeting on May 1, I do want to come up to see you and Miss Elliott some time during the late Spring or early Summer. Since I may be going to Goldsboro for a visit around that time, perhaps I can drop off for an afternoon visit if it is convenient.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Sarah Leverette
