Dear Mary:

Thanks for your letter of June 16 and for the suggestion that Jane Oliver might be willing to lead a discussion on the treatment of ephemeral material. I have been so involved the last day or two trying to get ready to leave and to wind up the fiscal year that I have been unable to get a letter off to Jane. I am sure that you can understand since you are probably going through the same thing. I plan to see Jane at the convention and see if she will consent to handle this. If she cannot, perhaps I will be able to see someone else while there.

I say again that the Nassau trip sounds wonderful, but I am afraid that I won't be able to make it. I will keep my foot in the door, however, as my plans will be more specific after I have reached Fort Myers. The whole lot of you are temptation personified when it comes to making trips.

Will see you Sunday afternoon. I will probably leave Fort Myers after lunch. It is only a 128-mile drive from there to Miami. See you soon.

Sincerely,

Sarah Leverette
