Dear Pearl,

Am enclosing a lot of "stuff" but want to keep you informed. The letter to Kate brings up the question of a separate business meeting. What do you think? I feel that Kate has a good program planned and that it probably will take up the Monday 2-5 session. Also, don't you think we have enough business to discuss to have a separate session. We could make it as short as possible so people could use the rest of Tuesday P.M. till 6:00 for sightseeing.

Also can you think of any other business to come up other than that I outlined briefly in the letter to Kate. I want to prepare a brief agenda so I would like to know if there are other items.

The letter from Bethany Ochal plus the Southwestern Resolutions seem to indicate that we should discuss the Resolutions. Also, please note her request for 12 copies.

Let me know if you have any suggestions re the meeting. Couldn't do without your help.

Sincerely,

Sarah Leverette, President
