Dear Kate:

I have just been advised by Professor Hodge O'Neal that Professor Wayne Woody of Tulane will be in charge of arrangements for the S.E. Law Teachers Conference in New Orleans, August 24, 25 and 26. In the same mail I received a letter from Caroline Heriot stating that Lamar Woodward is leaving Tulane in June to return to practice and that Pat Coffman will replace him. We have not, as yet, received an official invitation from New Orleans but I feel that I must go ahead with plans.

Since arrangements are being handled by Professor Woody, I am asking Caroline, and Lamar (to serve until succeeded) to act as our local arrangements committee. Would you serve on this committee if it is convenient?

I am enclosing a copy of an "information statement" that I thought would be helpful to the committee in planning.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

P.S. I note that Caroline stated in her letter that she probably would be unable to attend the meeting with you.
