Dear Sarah:

Please pardon the awful delay in answering your letter of May 12th. I wish I could think that it wouldn't happen again, but it probably will next time!

All the notes I had for my remarks on the handling of pamphlets, etc. were just scribbles in outline form, which I destroyed before your tracks were cold that afternoon. What I had to say is a very hazy memory now, and I am sure you will do them justice than the remarks deserve.

I thought the meeting was a very nice one too, and we enjoyed it. I hope you will have a good time in Chicago. I would have liked to have gone too, but our help this summer has left a lot to be desired, and I thought I would do well to stay. Ten years from now, I wont be able to tell the difference, but it looked important right now!

Sincerely yours,

Marianna Long
