Dear Miss Leverette:

I am enclosing a rough draft of the program for the Southeastern Conference of the Association of American Law Schools in order for you to make your plans for meeting with your group.

Due to the shortage of secretarial help we will be unable to handle your mailings, but we will supply you with copies of the program. Please let us know how many copies you will need.

I am looking forward to seeing you at the Conference.

Sincerely,

TOPICS

The precise place on the program for the various topics has not been decided upon at this moment, however, the three topics of the program will be:

(1) Law School Curriculum-1980 (Based upon a Foundation Financed Study at South Carolina Law School)

(2) The Keeton-O'Connel Proposal or similar auto injury reparation schemes.

(3) The Student Role in Law School Administration.

One hundred rooms have been set aside at the Royal Orleans on a first come, first served basis. Tickets for each meal event, namely the breakfast at Brennan's for the wives of delegates, the luncheon program (open to wives, of course) and the banquet (also open to wives) must be purchased separately.

It would be most helpful for planning purposes if all who anticipate attending would drop a note to my secretary:
Doris Campbell
Norman Mayer Building
Tulane University
New Orleans, Louisiana 70118

and indicate the number of meal tickets desired. Prices on the meals are not available at this time.

Your host schools, L.S.U., Loyola, and Tulane eagerly look forward to the meeting in New Orleans and trust all will enjoy their visit. If there is anything that you think we might do to make your visit more pleasant, please do not hesitate to write to me care of my secretary.

Sincerely,

Wayne S. Woody
