Dear Corinne,

I was delighted to hear from you and agree that it is high time that we start doing something for the Southeastern Chapter of the A. A.L.L. I do not mind confessing my confusion thereto.

I know nothing of the minutes of the Lexington meeting, with the exception of what I read in the last copy of the Newsletter. In fact, I cannot even figure out who is the current Secretary-Treasurer of our association after reading in the Newsletter that dues should be paid to Sarah Leverette. Sarah has sent nothing on to me - in fact, I am about to send a few things on to her. As I read the Newsletter, she is the current Secretary-Treasurer. Dot Salmon will be our President for 1957-58 and I will then be the Secretary-Treasurer. Some months back, I received the checkbook for our association - no deposit-book or records. Since that time, I have received Marianna Long's dues (the check is still not deposited) - in addition to the $6.00 of dues which were handed to me in Lexington. I cannot make a deposit, since I have no book - furthermore I do not know where the deposit book is, or who should be making the deposit and keeping the records. Any light you can shed on this situation will be greatly appreciated.

Indeed the Nominating Committee should be appointed soon. I can make no finer nomination than Harriet L. French.

Your past semester must have been a lulu. I trust that you did well and are ready to face the next. I, for one, must get very busy to prepare to teach my new course in Administrative Law.

Best wishes, Madam President, and do let me hear from you.

Sincerely,

M. Minnette Massey,
Assistant Law Librarian,
Assistant Prof. of Law.
