Dear Mary:

Enclosed is a mailing list I got up for SEAALL. Not all are members, but I have used this list for almost everything in an effort to drag in new members.

I'm not going to be able to get to Nashville for your meeting. I regret this very much. I'm going up to The University of Connecticut in November as Documents Head, which means that I'll be leaving our little group. If there is anything I can do to help you with the meeting, let me know. Any expenses you incur can be taken care of by the Chapter. I don't know right now how much money we have, but we have enough, I'm sure. I'm going to send a letter to the Chapter via you resigning as Secretary-Treasurer and I'll send along a Treasurer's report at the same time. As soon as you all elect a new Treasurer, let me know and I will authorize The Bank of Chapel Hill to honor checks drawn by her. In the meantime, if you need any cash, let me know.

Good luck to you and the Fall meeting. And let me know if I can do anything to help.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Catherine Maybury
