Dear Carol:

Enclosed are my receipts for the expenses I incurred during my trip to Pittsburgh. I appreciate very much the opportunity to share that very well planned and presented conference as a delegate sponsored by your chapter. This was the first AALL conference I have ever attended and I was truly impressed with the quality of the programming and the mix of fun with business.

I was also impressed with the way Carol Billings (do you have to be a "Carol" to be a president in AALL?) made the delegates a part of the goings on and how she made us feel at home. Tim Coggins did an excellent job as host, as did his wife, my "Nanny". It was a thoroughly enjoyable event and I appreciate you and your leadership affording me that opportunity.

If there is any way I can help out with the Southeastern Chapter, don't hesitate to call on me. I am happy to be a legislative contact for your chapter and will keep Kelly Browne informed about legislative issues we are dealing with here.

So, Welcome Back. I hope the rest of the conference was as good as what I sampled and that you feel a lot smarter than you did before you left Chapel Hill.

Sincerely,

James A. Nelson
