Dear Mr. Nelson:

Thank you so much for representing the Southeastern Chapter, AALL (SEAALL) as a distinguished delegate to the National Conference on Legal Information Issues. I was very pleased to meet you and to see you so often as an active participant in the National Conference programs and activities. I have forwarded your invoices to our new treasurer, so your reimbursement check should arrive soon.

I too was impressed by Carol Billings' leadership and genius in spearheading this event, and I have long enjoyed her warm personality. I trust that you will not mind if I take the liberty to share your letter with Carol, and with Tim and Hazel as well. I consider them to be close friends and two of the most competent, hard-working members of our Association. As chair of the SEAALL Government Relations Committee, Tim works closely with Kelly Browne and will greatly appreciate your assistance.

The next issue of the Southeastern Law Librarian, our chapter newsletter, will be primarily devoted to reports on the Annual Meeting including reports of first-time attendees. If you would like to contribute remarks or comments on your observations, you are welcome to send them to the newsletter editor at the address listed below by August 25. Please do not feel obligated to do this if you do not have the time or inclination, I just thought that it might be fun!

Again, it was a pleasure to meet you and to participate in the National Conference and the remainder of the Annual Meeting. If I or other members of AALL/SEAALL can be of assistance to you in the future, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Carol Avery Nicholson
