Dear Sarah:

The tentative program for the meeting in Chicago has just arrived and it seems that Wednesday evening, July 6th is just made for our Chapter meeting. I don't think Marian had in mind Chapter meetings when she set aside this evening for special groups but surely she won't mind if we use this time for our purposes. I have written to ask her about this.

If you and other members of the Executive Committee are agreeable, I shall proceed with arrangements for a supper meeting on the evening of July 6th.

Surely hope you have worked things out so that you can go to Chicago.

Sincerely,

Jane
