Dear Harriet:

What a bolt out of the blue. And on Monday morning, too! Needless to say I am very flattered by your consideration of my name for the Presidency of the South-eastern Chapter of A.A.L.L. I have had very little experience in these matters and feel that most any member of the Chapter could fill the position more creditably than I. However, if the Committee persists and the membership concurs, I will accept and do the very best I can to measure up to the high standard which Mary has set.

I do hope that your health is much improved now and that you are planning to come to Chapel Hill.

Sincerely,
