Dear Sarah,

Corinne has written asking me to summarize activities for the Chapter annual report. Of course I have no accomplishments to report. I am humbly ashamed of it but it is a fact and there is no point in denying it. The Constitution and By-laws were revised, distributed and adopted and one issue of a newsletter was issued. Preliminary arrangements were made for a meeting in Philadelphia and in Lexington.

Shifting gears from housekeeping back to professional matters poses a problem already for me. Chapter matters and law library matters in general have become almost submerged under the pleasant deluge of tasks that go into making a home. And I add that I love every minute of this new life.

I do wish you could visit us here. We would love having you anytime.

Sincerely,

Jane Wilkins Green
