Mr. Carroll Moreland, President A.A.L.L.
University of Pennsylvania Law School
3400 Chestnut Street
Philadelphia 4, Pa.

Dear Carroll:

I am writing to inquire about the possibility of arraing a specific time for a Southeastern Chapter meeting during the meeting in Philadelphia next Summer. Because our Chapter covers such a large area it is almost impossible for us to hold meetings except in conjunction with A.A.L.L. or the Southeastern Conference of Law Teachers.

We realize that this inquiry is probably a little previous but knowing how crowded convention schedules can get we thought it might be appropriate to bring this matter to your attention so that you can consider our request when you do come to the problem of "laying out" the program. We would like to have as much as three hours for our meeting if it can be arranged.

Very sincerely,

[Closing line cut off]

President, Southeastern Chapter
