Dearest Mary,

Please excuse this homemade letter but I'm so far behind at the office that I'll never get your letter answered if I wait till there is a slack moment. Aren't we all in the same boat?

I think your selections for the recruiting committee are excellent. Hope they all accept. Now that Sarah has notified me (unofficially) that 18 have ratified the Constitution, I think we can proceed under its provisions, don't you? What do you think of asking the same people to serve on the new members committee of the chapter. It looks like they should be able to combine both operations in one without too much trouble.

I have just learned that the next Southeastern Conference of Law Teachers will be held in Kentucky. Do you think it is feasible for us to try to have our next meeting in conjunction with them or should we proceed with plans for a meeting in Atlanta because it is so much more centrally located. I would like to have the views of all members of the Executive Committee as well as several others before proceeding. I will probably be in Miami next week attending the National Association of Legislative Service Agencies meeting and will make it a point to see Minnette and Harriet at that time if possible.

The new law librarian at Georgia is Miss Gray Gillam from VPI. I have only met her but hope she will be interested in Association and Chapter activities.

By the way, is there any chance of your coming down to the game in Athens Saturday. I'm sure I can put you up with a friend of mine who never knows how many people may sleep at her house on a football week-end. Sure 'nuf if you should do something rash like come down call me at T. F. Green's home phone. If I'm not there they will know where I am most likely. Surely would be fun to see you.

Love,
