Dear Sarah,

Please excuse this homemade letter but if I want to answer your letter until I have time at the office, you may never hear.

It seems to me that 18 votes are enough to declare the Constitution ratified. Don't you think? If so, we can proceed under it.

I have just learned that the next meeting of the Southeastern Conference of Law Teachers will meet in Kentucky. Do you think it is feasible for us to have a meeting in conjunction therewith or should we go ahead with plans to have the meeting in Atlanta because of its more central location. I would like the opinion of all members of the Executive Committee on this point and will also contact a few others for their views.

I may go to Miami next week for the meeting of the National Association of Legislative Service Agencies and will make it a point to see Harriett and Minnette if at all possible. I want to try and smooth out the newsletter's future, etc.

The new law librarian at Georgia is most attractive and I hope she will be interested in our activities. She came down here from VPI and has had no past law library experience.

I was pleased to hear what Harriett had to say about the Constitution. Hope Kate also approved.

Most sincerely,

Jane O
