Mr. Dillard S. Gardner, Librarian
Supreme Court Library
Raleigh, North Carolina.

Dear Mr. Gardner:

Miss Elliott has just advised me of your consent to serve on our program committee, of which she has requested me to act as chairman.

We are making informal plans for the day here, placing particular emphasis upon the matters mentioned at our last meeting. It seems to me that it will not be necessary for us as a committee to do much with respect to this meeting, but I do believe we should be giving serious thought to the program for a future meeting, sometime in the late spring or in the fall. I should of course very much like to have your suggestions, but in the meantime I will offer one of my own which is really prompted by your statement to Miss Elliott relating to the discarded advance sheets and cumulative supplements and would include consideration of this matter as well. My thought is that it might be wise for us soon to be giving some consideration to the possibility of obtaining cooperation from members of the bar who may be interested in the development of a more widespread law library service in this state. If and when the proper time comes it is altogether likely that the junior bar groups would furnish the proper points of contact. Do you think it would be worth while giving any thought to this topic and have you any suggestions.

Obviously we could also devote a part of such a meeting to matters which could be appropriately emphasized through the library service of the institution where we met.

Needless to say, I shall be glad to hear from you at your early convenience.

Yours sincerely,

Wm. R. Roalfe, Librarian.
