Mr. Dillard Gardner, Librarian
Supreme Court Library
Raleigh, North Carolina

Dear Gardner:

Mr. Gulley has just sent me his list of Memorials of the Bench and Bar appearing in the North Carolina Reports, and if you can forward your list to me it is my intention to combine the information and prepare a sufficient number of copies so that one may be in each of our libraries.

I think you are probably correct in indicating that it may be best to wait for some time before attempting publication since there are not as many entries as we had anticipated.

Please thank Mrs. Gardner for the delightful tea which added so much to our meeting in Chapel Hill, and to you go my thanks not only for your part in this entertainment, but for your constructive part in our deliberations. As soon as our honorable secretary transmits a copy of the minutes, I hope to map out some plan for our activities between meetings and to begin to think of our meeting here in the spring.

Yours sincerely,

Wm. R. Boalfe, Librarian.
