3-16-1939

Letter to Dillard Gardner regarding lists for a project, March 16, 1939

William Roalfe

Follow this and additional works at: https://uknowledge.uky.edu/seaall_cor

Part of the Law Librarianship Commons

Repository Citation
Roalfe, William, "Letter to Dillard Gardner regarding lists for a project, March 16, 1939" (1939). Correspondence. 1561.
https://uknowledge.uky.edu/seaall_cor/1561

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the SEAALL Archive at UKnowledge. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence by an authorized administrator of UKnowledge. For more information, please contact UKnowledge@hs.uky.edu.
March 16, 1939.

Mr. Dillard S. Gardner, Librarian
Supreme Court Library
Raleigh, North Carolina.

Dear Gardner:

Thank you for your letter of March the 10th. I think your suggestions are constructive and I am writing today to Miss Elliott and to Mr. Gulley to see if they wish to add persons to our list of those to be invited, and when I have the information definitely in hand we will proceed accordingly.

Miss Covington has asked me to reply for her by stating that she thinks that in due course the lists of books, supplemented by your own and Mr. Gulley's recommendations, should be returned to her in order that she may examine them. Her object in suggesting this is that she believes all the librarians should be fairly familiar with the lists, as they will be presented to outsiders. Obviously, it might be embarrassing if questions were raised about publications with respect to which each of those concerned had not had an opportunity to secure details. It also seems to me that Miss Elliott should be drawn into this discussion at some point, as she may have some suggestions to make.

I will communicate with you again as soon as our plans are a little more defined, and I certainly hope that you will find it possible to come over here.

Sincerely,

[Signature]