Dear Ruth:

The ballots went out this morning to those on the enclosed list. You will notice that I added the names which you gave me on the phone yesterday and also sent ballots to Harriet, Minnette and Mrs. Prendergast. I am enclosing several extra ballots in case I have omitted anyone to whom you think one should be sent. I'll appreciate it if you will let me know when you get them back.

I would suggest that any information which Stanley runs in the Newsletter on the Washington meeting not include the time on the various activities, except the opening luncheon, which will be at 12:30 at the Sheraton-Park, to avoid any possibility of our sending out conflicting information. I will get the program information in the mail on Monday, with a request that the members let me know whether they will be able to attend the luncheon and the dinner. We must give the hotel a final guarantee of the number who will attend 48 hours before the luncheon and dinner.

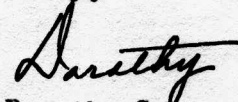

The hotel has offered to make a registration table available for us on Sunday morning. I thought it might facilitate things to collect for the luncheon and dinner at that time (say 10:00- 11:30) and to sell tickets separately rather than to make a flat registration charge, since it would seem probable that some might be able to attend one but not both functions. (I'll appreciate your thought on this). I'm afraid that we may run into some conflict with committee meetings scheduled on Sunday and as breakfast meetings. Miss Finley sent me a list of several scheduled meetings, and it looks as if Wednesday morning would be the best time for our Chapter breakfast meeting. This would give us time to think about whatever comes out of the Sunday discussion, and we could also have our regular business meeting at that time.

If you have any further ideas, they will be most welcome.

I hope you can talk Carroll into coming up for the meeting. We would all certainly enjoy seeing her again.

Thanks, Ruth, for all your help.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Salmon
