Miss Mary W. Oliver, President
Carolinas Chapter, A. A. L. L.
School of Law Library
University of North Carolina
Chapel Hill, North Carolina

Dear Mary:

The Chapter stationery is fine. We shall be putting it to good use this spring and summer. How many sheets did you order? I probably should have that information for the record. I am enclosing a check for $4.30 to cover the amount you expended for it, which seems quite reasonable.

Your letter of invitation to our fall meeting is excellent. It certainly should encourage the law librarians of the Southeast to come to our meeting. I appreciate your thoughtfulness in arranging that all the letters be typed at Duke and the envelopes addressed at the University. I always want to do my part, but it would have been a little hard to squeeze any extra typing into my schedule this spring.

I am writing the Bank of Chapel Hill today regarding the possibility of your being able to draw on the chapter account as president of the chapter. I have read the only copy of the constitution that I can find, which, incidentally, lists the name of our organization as "The Carolina Law Library Association," and find nothing to indicate that this procedure would be unconstitutional. As long as you send me copies of the bills and an account of everything you pay, to be kept in the records, I should think it would be far more convenient for you to be able to write checks on the account also. I shall ask the Bank of Chapel Hill to send you the necessary signature cards.

I hope you had a pleasant Easter vacation.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Margaret V. Shoemaker
Secretary-Treasurer
