Dear Wes,

Just a note to let you know that the mailing labels you requested will be sent by Diana Osbaldiston, who is (temporarily) maintaining the mailing list for SEAALL. It may take her a few days to first eliminate the persons who have not paid their dues (i.e., lapsed members). But I have informed her that you need to receive the labels no later than the end of this month. You can call her directly, if you like, if you have further questions.

ALSO ... While we're on the subject of the SEAAL Scholarship. It might be a nice idea to print something in the SEAALL Newsletter about why the Scholarship is named for Lucile M. Elliott. I received one of the scholarships a couple of years ago, but I never really knew who this Lucile person was (although I did notice that her name was being spelled about 5 different ways!) Later I also saw her name on the list of past AALL presidents (she was 1953-54), which showed her affiliation with the Univ. of North Carolina. Anyway, a brief article in the Newsletter might be another way of also drawing attention to the scholarships. Maybe someone on your committee would like to do that. Just a thought.

Sincerely yours,

Alva T. Stone
