Dear Pearl:

I was glad to have the opportunity to spend some time with you at St. Simon's. I was glad to try to be of some assistance with the program. After having given it some thought, however, I think I need apologize for the product. I clearly should have pre-screened the remarks to be made by the panelists but failed to do so. I'm not yet sure of what we ended up with, but I am certain that half of the program was not what I envisioned.

I am not sure of the solution but I shall continue to ponder the problem and hopefully will be able to develop at least some useful advice for the next program chairman.

There is some possibility that I will have an opportunity to be up your way in October and if it develops, I shall certainly let you know in advance.

Yours truly,
