Dear Mary,

Enclosed is our Survey report with profuse apologies for its shortcomings. Ruth and Jane and I have had untold difficulty in getting together and didn't arrange a successful meeting until last Wednesday when Jane and I went over to Athens. I was left holding the bag to make up the report and have spent virtually all day today on it. I'm putting it in the post office tonight and hope that this will give you the necessary time to consider how you want it handled at the meeting. It seems that I am also supposed to make whatever oral report you want at the luncheon, but we can see about that when we are all in Miami.

I am sending you a copy but will turn over the original to you in Miami for the records and exchange that copy for the enclosed. I shall bring to Miami also the tabulated questionnaire and all the returned questionnaires for your files if you want them.

I'll be getting in the middle of the morning Sunday and will be at the Delano, so shall probably see you soon thereafter. Ruth and Jane hope to arrive by noon.

Sincerely,

Mary Anne Kernan
