Dear Corinne:

Thank you so much for sending us the Mississippi Local and Private Laws for the January Regular Session. We certainly appreciate your help in getting this material.

I have checked back over our exchange records with the University of Mississippi and everything which I can find indicates that our exchange with you was for your Session Laws including Local and Private Laws. We have received these from your Library in the past. As you know our Private and Local Laws are published as part of the Session Laws so that you are receiving like material from us. If there is any way in which you can arrange to have these sent to us I will appreciate it.

I have already written to Ruth and told her that I had none of the minutes for the Saturday morning meeting and she had all of those and said she would write them up and send me a copy. I hope that by now she has received my letter.

Are you planning to attend the meeting in Chicago this Christmas? Hoping to see you there,

Sincerely,

Mary
