Miss Ruth Corry, Acting Law Librarian
University of Georgia
Athens Ga.

Dear Ruth:

Thanks for the report on the progress of the survey. I think we got pretty good response all things considered. Sarah Leverette and I have gotten together a couple of times on plans for the meetings in Miami and Columbia. We will be having a luncheon meeting in Miami, but since we will only have two hours for lunch and discussions we felt it might be better to postpone action on Constitution and by-laws until Columbia. At any rate, we would like to have an oral report on the survey given at the Miami luncheon. I will appreciate it if you, Jane, and Mary Ann will formulate such a report and one of you (you all can fight for the dubious honor) plan to make the report. Let me know who is going to do it so I can plan accordingly.

I can't think of any outstanding developments here recently either at the law school or dear old Chapel Hill. When are you coming up?

Sincerely,

Mary
