Dear Sarah:

Thanks so much for your prompt action on the various jobs which I left with you. I think that we should probably report the luncheon which was held at Miami especially in view of the fact that it is all we have to report. And off hand all I can remember about it is Mary Anne's report. I hope that you have more information at hand. Should our plans for meeting go in -- or is the annual report on a calendar basis?

As I was reading your letter, I got a phone call from the Bank of Chapel Hill about the request you made. I told them to send you a statement of the balance. As far as I know the only outstanding bill is one which is owed to me for some mimeographing which I had done -- and unless I remember to write a check for myself, it may never get paid.

I think that it is just as well to let the refund from National go until the meeting when we can get the membership list straight.

I remembered on the plane that the other thing which I had to discuss with you was the nomination if any, for the Matthew Bender Scholarship. So far nothing has been done about it and the deadline on that will come up before the meeting. Any ideas?

I had a letter from Harriet waiting for me when I got back asking about a mail election. I think that the letter which you wrote answers her question to me and the enclosure for the balloting should do very well.

Thanks again for taking care of all this. I really enjoyed seeing you and hope that you are making great progress convincing Dean Prince that Chicago is a must. If you need any help, let me know.

Sincerely,

Mary W. Oliver, President
