Dear Pearl:

Thank you for your letter of September 16 giving me Pat Coffman's mother's address. I really appreciate your sending it to me.

I received a communication from Bill Younger with complete information on the plaque given to be sent to Leah Chasin. He is pushing hard for a similar type of recognition to be made in AALL and incidentally, for a similar plaque for certified members. (We turned that down once before). He also noted in a letter to Marian Boner that you had been given a gavel and I seemed very pleased with it. I shall have to disabuse Marian of any idea that she may have that I am also interested in being presented with my own personal gavel.

You have my complete sympathy with the rat race. Ours is well underway and I find myself very, very bust. Thanks again for your letter.

Sincerely,

Mary
