CONTENTS

SYMPOSIUM ON LAW AND THE ENVIRONMENT

INTRODUCTION ........................................................................................................ 599
by George Weyerhaeuser

LAND USE CONTROL PRINCIPALS APPLIED TO OFFSHORE COASTAL WATERS ........................................................................................................ 606
by Orlando E. Delogu

THE AUTO INDUSTRY AND THE ENVIRONMENT .................................................. 629
by Henry Ford II

AIR POLLUTION CONTROL: NEW GOALS IN THE LAW ........................................ 644
by Dr. John T. Middleton

STRIP MINING IN KENTUCKY ............................................................................. 652
by David A. Schneider

INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL DAMAGE CONTROL: SOME PROPOSALS FOR THE SECOND BEST OF ALL POSSIBLE WORLDS ........................................ 673
by Stephen J. Vasek

NOTE .......................................................................................................................... 619
by Jack M. Smith, Jr.

(continued on next page)
CONTENTS—Continued

COMMENTS

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW—LANDFILL PERMIT
Requirements—The Corps. of Engineers
Does an About Face [Zabel v. Tabb, 430 F.2d 199 (5th Cir. 1970)] ................................................................. 748

by Lee M. MacCracken

LABOR RELATIONS — § 301(a) LABOR-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS ACT AND NORRIS-LAGUARDIA ACT—COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENTS—NO-STRIKE
Clause [The Boys Market Incorporated v. Retail Clerks Union Local 770, 398 U.S. 235 (1970)] ......................... 755

by Jerry Markham

BOOK REVIEW

Whose Life? Whose Liberty? Whose Happiness?: A Review of The Morality of Abortion: Legal and Historical Perspectives .................................................................................. 771

by Daniel E. Pilarczyk

Book Notes ..................................................................................... 779