CONTENTS

POINTS AND VIEWPOINTS ........................................................................................................... 785

IN MEMORIAM: ROY MORELAND ........................................................................................ 787

ARTICLES

By Roy Moreland

FEDERAL EMPLOYEE LABOR RELATIONS: FROM THE "GAG-RULE" TO EXECUTIVE ORDER 11491 ...................................................... 833
By Stuart M. Rosenblum and Shelton E. Steinbach

SPECIAL COMMENT

COMPREHENSIVE PLANNING LEGISLATION: THE KENTUCKY EXPERIENCE ............ 875
By John E. Kennedy

NOTES

THE ROLE OF SCIENTER AND THE NEED TO LIMIT DAMAGES IN RULE 10b-5 ACTION—THE TEXAS GULF SULFUR LITIGATION .................................................. 891
By I. Kent Dunlap

THE DILEMMA OF ADOPTEES IN THE CLASS GIFT STRUCTURE—THE KENTUCKY APPROACH: A RULE WITHOUT REASON ..................................................... 921
By Gerald L. Greene and Michael J. Schmitt

(continued on next page)
CONTENTS—Continued

THE “EQUAL RIGHTS” AMENDMENT—POSITIVE
PANACEA OR NEGATIVE NOSTRUM? ................................................................. 953
   By Mark Stephen Pitt

COMMENTS

MEDICAL MALPRACTICE—ADOPTION OF THE DISCOVERY
Rule [Tomlinson v. Siehl, 459 S.W.2d 166 (Ky. 1970)] ..................................... 990
   By Michael W. Hawkins

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW—DEFENDANT’S RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL—IS SIX
   By William L. Stevens

CORPORATIONS—SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, § 16(b)—“SALE”
DEFINED [Bershad v. McDonough, 428 F.2d 693 (7th Cir. 1970), cert.
   By Steve Hixson

BOOKS REVIEWS

LILLIAN R. BOEHME, CARTE BLANCHE FOR CHAOS
   Reviewed by Katherine G. Peden ............................................................ 1018

JACOB W. EHRLICH, THE LOST ART OF CROSS-EXAMINATION
   Reviewed by Harry Miller ........................................................................ 1019

BOOK NOTES ............................................................................................... 1021

BOOKS RECEIVED ..................................................................................... 1026

INDEX