Dear Susan:

On behalf of the Executive Committee and the members of the Southeastern Chapter of AALL I am writing to thank you for your presence at our Annual Meeting in Knoxville. We appreciated your comments and greetings from the national body. Most of all we appreciated seeing you coming and going to meetings with us and participating in our proceedings. Those of us who had met you previously now feel that we have a friend indeed. Those of us who had only seen you in action from afar now recognize you as one of us.

I am glad that we had the privilege of welcoming you to our meeting before your term of office expires.

Enclosed are copies of the minutes of the SEAALL Executive Committee meeting and of the SEAALL Business meeting which were held in Knoxville.

With grateful thanks from the Chapter and warm regards,
I remain,
Yours sincerely,

Diana Osbaldiston
Secretary – SEAALL
