Dear Ms. Osbaldiston:

Thank you for contacting us about our SEALL membership payment. In checking my records I found that we had, indeed, paid our SEALL membership dues for 1988/89.

I've enclosed a copy of the payment authorization which was sent on March 24 with the first payment.

In checking with our Purchasing Department on how best to handle my error, they asked that you return the check and purchase order you have just received along with a short note saying that the dues have already been paid (which they will keep for their records).

I am sorry for the extra time and trouble this has caused you and, again, want to thank you.

Very truly yours,

Barbara Wells
