Dear Tim,

I was glad to see you in Minneapolis. And delighted to hear the results of the meetings. I hope I haven't caused too much trouble by asking to have Miriam Murphy added to the committee. She'd just said something to me a few minutes before you came by, so I thought I'd see if it were still possible to have her added.

Enclosed for your information is a copy of the "New Member Information Sheet", which we've been sending out to new members as we process their membership applications. I will have to ask Joe Cross if he's going to continue editing the column for the newsletter. If not, then the form, which I've been sending out, will have to be revised. A supply came with the material Lisa sent me last year when I became chair of the committee. Do you want to send the form or its successor out when you welcome new members or can you think of an alternative? Any suggestions are welcome.

Thanks.

Sincerely,

Susan S. Roach
Chair, Membership Committee
