Dear Roger:

This note is written to express personal and group appreciation for the very fine presentation that you made Saturday morning at the joint meeting of the Southeastern and Atlanta Chapters. I know we each benefited greatly from your presence, not solely during your formal presentation but throughout the meeting. I do hope that we will see more of you at Southeastern meetings, perhaps even on a more permanent basis.

I understand from Howard Hood that you expect the Court to pay all of your expenses for attending the meeting. If, however, there are any costs not covered by the Court I hope you will send a detail of the same to our Treasurer, Ed Edmonds, at William and Mary.

Many thanks and best regards.

Sincerely,

Edwin M. Schroeder
