Dear Betty:

Your report as Chair of the Local Arrangements Committee arrived on June 3 of this week while I was in New Orleans. Unfortunately I had gone to the city to be with my dad while we prepared to make arrangements for having my mother admitted to a local nursing home. She died Saturday morning, June 1, before that had taken place and thus I was joined by my family to stay on for her funeral on Monday.

I was very pleased to receive a copy of your report and to learn that we had netted a total of $4,000 from the Institute. You and everyone involved with the program are to be congratulated, not only carrying it out so effectively, but also for seeing to it that we netted a very substantial profit from the program.

If it is not too much trouble I would appreciate it if you could have forwarded to Margarette Dye, Dick Danner, and myself copies of your income and expense statement. I think that should be incorporated into Margarette’s official records and I would appreciate having a record of the same in both Dick’s and my files as a permanent part of the Chapter’s records.

Again, Betty, many thanks for everything that you and all the people from New Orleans did for this year’s Institute.

I look forward to seeing you in New York. Best regards.

Sincerely,

Edwin M. Schroeder
Director and Professor
