Dear Frankie:

The Law College was charged for the 28 telegrams that I sent cancelling the Southeastern meeting which explains why I never received a bill. The total amount was $32.80. If you would send me the money, I will see that it gets processed through the proper channels.

We have just about recovered from our fire and hope to finish up the financial details soon, thank goodness. However, the Library is in much better condition than ever before so that ill wind blew some good.

Do you all have any ideas about scheduling another meeting? In the Spring? Next Fall? Where? I do not know what to do as the questionnaires indicated insufficient travel money, lack of time, distance, etc. but were not too much help in planning another meeting. Any ideas you have will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Betty Taylor
