Dear Corinne:

Thank you for your information on the Southern Law Review Conference. We shall write to Vanderbilt for the copy of no. 1.

After I wrote to you, Beverly Walker turned over some more copies of the conferences from the Law Review office. Among them was no. 6 which we lacked and the 4th annual, South Carolina. If you still need the 4th, I can send you a copy.

As to Southeastern Chapter: I have concentrated on other things, have not even paid my dues; but will do so. It was my understanding that the group was not interested in Foreign Periodicals and that Union lists should not be undertaken but wait for the survey of the Southern Regional Board, (?)

I shall be glad to support any project which the group wishes to tackle. As far as Louisiana is concerned, we have the material in manuscript form and can take out any individual sections. I don't know what we could do with increased demands on our staff without additional help. I wish I could give you some positive suggestions.

Enjoy yourself in Philadelphia and give my best regards to the group.

Sincerely,

Kate Wallach
Law Librarian
