Dear Jane:

I hope, it is not too late to send you "newsworthy items" for the Membership News section of the LLJ for February.

First, I am enclosing a clipping which Bob Claitor sent me some time ago about Mrs. Pridgen's retirement. I do not think that the Journal has carried a notice about her yet. This would make a good story.

Our staff had one change during the year Mrs. Joyce Baker resigned as secretary and was replaced by Mrs. Helen Pluskat who came to us from the Secretary of State's office highly recommended by Mrs. Margaret Lane.

Reference Librarian Dell Scholz is taking legal bibliography (not from me this term!) and a course in the Library Science Department. She has had time to co-author the 1955 Supplement to the Oil and Gas Bibliography which appeared last spring.

The Louisiana State Law Institute recently published: Bibliographical history of Louisiana Civil Law Sources, concocted by me.

Peggy Harper completed her term of office as President of the Louisiana Chapter, Special Libraries Association. She is in charge of recruiting new members for the Association of American Law Libraries in our area.

More news next time, after the showing of the LSU film production (and TV program) on Legal research at the Midwinter Meeting of the American Association of Law Schools in Chicago.

Sincerely,

Kate Wallach
