Dear Howard:

I am enclosing the original proposal from the Opryland Hotel which I have signed. I have discussed the proposal with Kay Todd; she finds it satisfactory.

As we discussed, I think it is advisable to proceed with the purchase of thirty tickets to the Grand Ole Opry. By this letter, I am directing Ed Edmonds to allocate $270.00 to purchase the tickets. You should contact him to make the specific arrangements.

Finally, I also agree that we should make arrangements to charter a bus to go into downtown Nashville.

Let me know if I can assist in any way. Thanks for your quick work on this.

Sincerely yours,

Donald G. Ziegenfuss
President
