Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen

Dear Pearl:

I enjoyed my visit to the Southeastern Chapter very much and was glad to have had an opportunity to meet with you and your colleagues.

I mentioned to Mary Green as I was leaving that it has apparently become customary for the local chapter to pay the expenses of the President for such chapter talks, exclusive of transportation. I had been advised of this policy by Bill Stern and I hope your treasury will be sufficient to reimburse me for my room and breakfast ($16.08) and the registration fee for the conference of $10, for a total of $26.08. The A.A.L.L. will take care of the transportation expenses. I am enclosing a xerox copy of the total bill and registration receipt. If there is any problem, please let me know and I will make other arrangements.

Sincerely,

Morris
