Dear Sarah:

As you may have been informed, the Lucile Elliott Scholarship Committee mailed a flier, and copies of the applications to the scholarship, twice, one in January and the other in March. By April 15, our application deadline, we had received two applications; one from Mr. Kenneth R. Evans, the Librarian at the University of Stetson Law School and the other from Miss Kathleen Price, Assistant Law Librarian at the University of Alabama School of Law.

After serious consideration (and I must really commend Adrien Hinze and Caroline Hariot for their work in this committee, they were really excellent) we have voted unanimously for Miss Price.

Will you let me know whether I should notify her and when the presentation is going to be made?

I understand you have not been feeling well lately. I am very sorry to hear this, and I hope you are feeling better now. I am looking forward to seeing you in Washington at the annual meeting.

Best regards,

Mario P. Goderich
