Dear Pearl:

We were happy to mail out the letters to the members of the Southeastern Chapter in regards to the Lucile Elliott Scholarship. The University of Miami was happy to pay for the mailing of the announcement. We did make two mailings and we have received, so far, two completed applications. At the same time we have updated your mailing list in so far as we have received communications of people that have changed positions or are not working as librarians. We will, after April 15, return this updated list to you.

I am happy that you find the AALL Newsletter a good contribution to law librarianship and I hope to see you in Washington this year and to be your host at the 1971 AALL meeting at Miami.

Very best regards,

Mario P. Goderich
Associate Law Librarian
