Miss Catherine Binzel, Librarian,
Jefferson County Law Library,
900 Jefferson County Court House,
Birmingham, Alabama 35203

Dear Miss Binzel:

I appreciated your letter and I understand your writing. I was for years, too, the only Librarian and I can understand about your wanting to know about the meeting.

This meeting is in conjunction with the Professors who teach in the various Schools of Law in the Southeastern district.

Our Southeastern Librarians meet together on Friday, August 21 for a luncheon and meeting. I am not sure just what the topic under discussion will be--I believe it might be Microfilming, but I am not sure. You might write Mrs. Mary P. Green, Vanderbilt University, School of Law Library, Nashville, Tenn. and she can advise you about the discussion topic.

Other than that one afternoon meeting, we do not meet again as a Law Librarian's group. We all do attend the meetings and dinners, etc. set up by the Southeastern Conference.

I know there will be one other Bar Librarian, a Mr. Younger from Montgomery, Alabama and I would think the two of you could have some good discussions about your work. I always find this group worthwhile because all of our routine work is the same and you gain very much from discussions that come up from time to time amongst us.

I hope your Library will be see fit to send you.

Most cordially,

Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen,
Sect.-Treas. SEAALL
