Dear Earl:

Even though I am late in writing to you (I have started a letter at least four times to you!), please be assured that the Southeastern Chapter appreciated your meeting with us at Oxford, Mississippi.

It is always good to hear about the "news" of the Association and plans for the year.

After you left, our Chapter passed the following Rescution which is enclosed. We would appreciate your bringing it up at the next Executive Board Meeting.

We know we will have a good year under your capable leadership.

Most cordially,

Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen,
Secretary-Treasurer, SEAALL

Encl.
