Dear Harriet:

I am now the duly elected treasurer of the Southeastern Chapter inasmuch as I have a bank account!

Please advise me to whom I write the $100.00 for the scholarship. Does this have to be handled thru the AALL Scholarship Fund, or when the person is decided up on - then send that person the check?

The school year is going all too fast. It's beginning to be time to think of the Annual meeting – and New York and the World's Fair.

You can also probably tell me about the membership list. As I look at it, I send bills to all people listed with an * from the AALL Directory? (Of course, the Southeastern territory).

When I sent out your letters I mailed the people in Arkansas and West Virginia letters - I thought they were members!

Cordially yours,

Mrs. Pearl W. Van Allmen, Secretary-Treasurer SE AALL
