Dear Mary,

I was glad for your letter; and believe it or not I was going to write you to mail that material to me.

Things have been hectic for me, too. My sister had to go to the hospital for tests and since she is the one that takes care of my 90 year old mother - I had to go to Cincinnati this week-end and I may have to go more often.

So there is not much chance of my coming to Vanderbilt Law School for a visit. I would like to very much because our Wing seems to be in the making! Perhaps this early Spring I will get there.

I was sorry to hear Miss Woodard fell. I am sure this presents all kind of problems for you?

I am fortunate to have a girl assist me each morning from 8:30 A.M. - 12 noon. She doesn't have too good eyesight, but she is a graduate of college, which helps some.

I will write Dorothy about Miss Woodard and send her address.

Most sincerely,
