Mrs. Mary Folio Green,
Law Librarian,
Vanderbilt Law School
Nashville, Tennessee, 37203

Dear Mary:

The box of Southeastern correspondence arrived.

I wish you would have stored the materials in your office, because I am sure you have more room than I have.

I will take the current files out and keep them in a filing cabinet in the office and then store the other materials away somewhere to gather dust.

Concerning the bank - that seems to be standard practice in Louisville - though I will admit that I do business in one of the banks for common people.

You may hear from me again - because no doubt I will have some questions later on.

Cordially yours,

Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen,
Law Librarian.

Mr. U. V. Jones, Law Librarian,
Lamar School of Law,
Emory University,
Atlanta 22, Ga.

Dear Mr. Jones:

In order for me to deposit a check from the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries, I need your signature.

After signing all four forms, please forward them on to Mrs. Green in Nashville since she is the Vice President.

I would appreciate your taking care of this at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,

Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen,
Law Librarian.
