Mrs. Mary Polk Green, Law Librarian,
Vanderbilt University Law Library,
Nashville, Tennessee 37203

Dear Mary:

After 5 weeks in Europe, and a wonderful and fantastic time it was, I am back to earth, and trying to make myself take up where I left on June 2d. To say the least I am not the same person because travelling in Europe is so different that I will never feel like life is good until I go again!

But with the telephone ringing in the office and all its problems I am slowly un-winding and since I had a request from one of your graduates, I must write and ask you to send me a book on loan. Mr. Ed Render who is practising in our town and also taught several courses at night in our evening division would like you to send me:

If you are like I am, you just don't have time to fool with loans, but sometimes you are forced to. At your convenience, I would appreciate the above book, if it is available.

I talked with Dorothy Saturday evening. She had just returned for a few days with her cousin to one of our parks. She said she was very tired and that she had finished her treatments and would go to the Doctor on Tuesday. She found that she was anemic which is a result of treatments. She has a good outlook on life, but I must go up very soon to visit her. I feel badly about it all each time I talk to her - she seems so alone; but guess those of us by ourselves are any way.

Dorothy tells me you will not be at the meeting in Charleston. Will miss you. I really wanted to attend the meeting in N.Y.U. but with my going to Europe I could not make both, of course.

If you have any minutes of the meeting at Colorado or any thing you need to report, send it on.

Most cordially
